

DAY 10

...All of you who are on the LORD's side...

Exodus 32:26 NLT

Before we enter a “new season” we need to re-examine our alliances and friendships we make. Many times we side with people who are underdogs. We take up their cause to help them in the perceived need. Other times we stand with those who have the noble agenda with self-assurance in what they know is right and wrong. There are times where the underdogs and the causes they champion are wrong (Consider this story of the “Gibeonite underdogs in Joshua 9:3-19). The same goes for strong their noble agenda can be wrong (Consider King Saul who nobly spared the Amalekites in 1 Samuel 15:1-23). Do we ever consider taking God's side instead? HE IS CONSISTENTLY RIGHT EVERY TIME. His love and justice are perfect and fair. This is the side we should take irrespective of who is trying to solicit our help to their cause or agenda. GOD will not bless any side because His character is one that promotes unity and reconciliation. Men, women and children have a phenomenal way of manipulating us into alliances with them. We are drawn into their influence which colours every decision we make. If we go into a “new season” with this influence still over us we will taint what God is trying to do for us in the “new season”. Cut off these ties and commit yourselves to God's side only! Ask the Holy Spirit to help you with these soul ties.
