

DAY 16

“We live by believing and not by seeing.”

2 Corinthians 5:7NLT

There will be times that entering a “new season” will be intimidating for Christians. Some may even refuse to do so because we are unsure of what lies ahead. The unseen and unexpected can be very scary. Then there are Christians that feel that they must ignore all caution, dive in head-first without consulting God who has eyes. Paul the Apostle writing to the Corinthian Church was not speaking about us living by blind faith. He was telling us not to trust the natural circumstances we see around us. God will never leave us to fend for our own or walk by blind faith. God is not asking us to have blind faith. Neither is he asking us to jump in and go with the flow. He offers us help through friendship with the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit sees things from a different perspective and helps with guide markers on our journey. Words of prophecy, Words of Wisdom, Words of Knowledge and various other spiritual gifts can help us to navigate the “new season” in ways that will dazzle us with His glory. If that is not enough we have the promise that God will never leave us nor forsake us. This is the assurance we need to carry us through the “new season” that lies ahead. Pray and ask the Holy Spirit for a deep connection with Him. Ask Him for the best spiritual gifts so you can navigate the “new season” freely. Ask Him for the gift of faith so you can walk by believing. Ask Him to help you keep your eyes fixed on Jesus.

EAR2HEAR NETWORK

RELATIONSHIPS WITH CHRISTIAN WORKERS, MISSIONARIES & LEADERS:

For many years we have had the joy of encouraging and challenging people who dedicate their lives to the Kingdom work of God. We have opportunities to laugh and cry with these dear people as they share their challenges and struggles.

God has allowed EAR2HEAR a platform where we can serve those who “serve others”. Please pray with us for the following:

1. Ongoing relationships with people in ministry – that God would strengthen those relationships through love, transparency, friendship, Unity of Spirit and unity of purpose.
2. Those we are helping to enter the ministry or do missions. We mentor a handful of people who are taking a journey toward involvement that moves beyond volunteer work.
3. New contacts, connections and opportunities to build relationships.
4. Open doors to speak at events focused on leadership from a Christian perspective.
5. Open doors to build a relationship with organisations that work with leaders.
6. Wisdom, knowledge, love, compassion and Holy Spirit guidance to work effectively with those in ministry.
