

DAY 24

“The LORD is good to those who depend on him, to those who search for him. So it is good to wait quietly for salvation from the LORD.”

Lamentations 3:25 - 26 NLT

The “new season” cannot be treated as other seasons before. In preparation, God often helps us unclutter and simplify our lives. It may feel like there is a sudden “void” during this uncluttering process. Sometimes we “parent” assignments from seasons past. When those seasons & assignments end, we sit with anxiety because life is suddenly very quiet and still. The transition between seasons make our fingers itchy and we end up filling the void projects (helping people, business opportunities, seminars, travel, shopping sprees etc.) to bring a measure of busy noise into the stillness. Do not fear or despise the quiet. It is the “calm” before the “new season” comes upon you. If God is trying to create a quiet space in your life for you to regroup and strategize with Him, why do you disrupt this process with a multitude of activities? Your insecurity is delaying your progress forward as a believer. It is nothing more than pride to think you can fill the void that God keeps empty for now. God will resist the proud (James 4:6) but gives grace to the humble. The humble are those who wait quietly on the Lord and depend on Him for the next step. Embrace and enjoy the calm while you can.

ECO MINISTRIES

---

Michael and Natasha Lotter are missionaries associated with Campus Crusade for Christ. Yet passion is the TOURISM INDUSTRY. Many people in this industry have not been reached with the Gospel because they tend to be inaccessible as they work or live in wild-life preserves. Within these preserves are villages that are pretty much cut off from people so these too need to be reached. This couple has various strategies to reach this harvest field. Please pray for:

1. The Lotter family, for God's blessing upon them in this season.
2. Resources so that they can continue this work.
3. COVID-19 has affected this many very negatively, pray that doors would open to reach more in the tourism industry through their initiatives.
4. The Christian workers trained by Michael in various countries would multiply the work of the Lord.

THE RETURN – By Jonathan Cahn (DAY 7 of Fasting and Prayer)

Today the focus of our prayers will be Repentance from not serving others. To be the greatest in the Kingdom of God we need to serve and be the least. To live in the light is to love your brother. To overcome your enemy is to heap generosity and kindness as coals on their heads. If we are not doing this then we need to reflect and ask whether we pattern our lives according to the way Jesus would want us to. Repent if you find your life is falling short of serving others. Pray also for the church to set the example in this area. Pray for our self-serving nation.
