

DAY 8

For rebellion is like the sin of divination...

1 Samuel 15:23 NLT

The Lord determines the “new season” and He helps us to step into it. In this way, we become more like Jesus. This means, like Jesus, we enter the “new season” and through the careful guidance of the Holy Spirit, we are instrumental in God’s Kingdom as we shine bright and share the Gospel.

We can reject the path that God is taking us on. Rebellion against God’s design and destiny for us is going to put us in a place where we are self-determining our future. This is the essence of divination... to attempt “divine” our future through our means and by trusting in other powers, including our own to accomplish this. Proverbs 14:12: “There is a path before each person that seems right, but it ends in death”. To try divine our future is rebellion against God and it will end in pain and destruction. Relationships, blessings, favour, opportunity and open doors – these will disappear while we entertain dead works. God doesn’t honour rebellion as it is ultimately established on the sin of pride... God will always resist the proud. He does, however, give grace to the humble. Pray that the Holy Spirit may instil in us godly humility. So we can we walk in the path that He determines and enter without resistance, the “new season” He has laid open before us.

EAR2HEAR PRAYER NETWORK

EAR2HEAR is passionate about prayer. We know and understand it is always the most effective way to work in God's Kingdom. Please pray for us for it is our desire to:

1. Grow our prayer network.
2. Add more committed intercessors to the team so that we can share the increasing number of issues that require prayer.
3. Breakthroughs and favour as we pray for matters that come before us.
4. To hear God clearly before we pray, while we pray and after we pray. Pray that we will also obey without compromising His spoken instructions to us.
5. Pray that our prayers will be fashioned according to the leading of the Holy Spirit.
6. Pray for God to send labourers to help us with our prayer initiatives.
